Vernon junior society won the junior banner with 323 points but gave it to the Wootan juniors in view of the fact that they had already held it four consecutive years, and further because the Wootan Society had traveled nine miles in a wagon to reach the train and had surmounted many obstacles in order to be able to attend the convention.

The intermediate banner was won by the U. S. church of Mt. Vernon with 295 points. The district banner was given to District No. 5, The Attendance banner, given to the society sending the largest proportion of its membership to the convention, was won by the Maysville intermediate society.

CINCINNATI DEPARTMENT STORE ROBBED OF $25,000

Burglars Blind Watchmen, Blow Safe and Get Away With Large Sum.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 15. — Six burglars spent six hours and a quarter in the H. & S. Pogue Company's department store, Fourth and Race streets, before 12 o'clock last night, tied two night watchmen to chairs in the basement, blew and forced two safes and escaped with $15,000 in cash. Robert W. Pogue, President of the company, estimated damages to the safes and stock of the store at $15,000, raising the total loss to $40,000.

In addition to the loot with which they made their get-away, the safe-blowers littered the floor surrounding one of the safes with silver change amounting to almost seven hundred dollars.

Both watchmen were bound, gagged and blindfolded by their captors so that they could furnish the police with no description of the robbers. One of the watchmen gave the alarm shortly after the burglars had fled by working his way to a telephone, trussed though he was to a chair, and calling police headquarters.
